

Suggested Interview Questions - Fellowship

1. How do you connect with people to show empathy?
2. How would you make a new client feel welcome and comfortable the first time they came to the office? How would you do this remotely on a video call?
3. We take confidentiality with our clients very seriously. Why do you think confidentiality is important when working with asylum seekers?
4. What do you do if a client asks you a question you don't know the answer to?
5. Can you tell me about a difficult situation that required patience? How did you remain patient in the situation?
6. At [AsylumWorks], one of our core values is [respect], meaning we believe [every person has value regardless of power or privilege]. How would you seek to embody the value of respect in this role, given that this role would be working 1:1 with clients every day?